The Grandparent Resource Center (GRC), a program of the Eastern Nebraska

Office on Aging. GRC provides a wide range of services for grandparent caregivers who are 55 years and older.

services include:

- Monthly support group meetings for grandparents.
- Phone support when a caregiver is in crisis or just needs to explore options with someone.
- Assistance with transportation to support group meetings.
- Referral to legal services.
- Access to the many programs available through ENOA, and other community resources.

Many grandparents and other relatives feel overwhelmed in their new role, raising their children's children. Join others in similar situations to create a plan for success.

You are not alone!

Join the group to...

- Relearn parenting techniques
- Discuss difficulties
- Share coping skills
- Find out about services
- Learn how to take care of your own needs
