

SENIORHELP

VOLUNTEER ORIENTATION

One of the major goals of the SeniorHelp Program is, naturally, assisting elderly clients. However, we believe that it's equally important to ensure that volunteers are well-equipped to provide that help. When our helpers are fully prepared, the experience of volunteering is better for everyone involved. Recently, the SeniorHelp program made an adjustment to the volunteer application process. We now require a brief, casual orientation with all new volunteers. The purpose of the orientation is to prepare volunteers for any possible situation. It's also a chance for new volunteers to ask questions that relate to their specific goals, concerns or capabilities. If you have a friend or family member who'd like to join you on your volunteer outings, they will need to complete the entire application and enrollment process. You're welcome to join them in orientation if you'd like to brush up on the program!
