U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

Introduction

Under Executive Order 14012, Restoring Faith in Our Legal Immigration Systems and Strengthening Integration and Inclusion Efforts for New Americans, USCIS is working with federal interagency partners to reduce barriers to citizenship and promote naturalization.

A central part of the Interagency Strategy for Promoting Naturalization is reaching the more than 9.1 million eligible to naturalize individuals through each interagency partners unique stakeholder networks, including those individuals in more historically underserved or isolated communities.

USCIS has many outreach and educational resources available digitally through our Citizenship Resource Center. We will also make print copy materials available to interagency partners upon request. Depending on available inventory, USCIS can ship materials directly to local offices and distribution points.

To request print materials, write to citizenshipproducts@uscis.dhs.gov. USCIS will notify you when materials are available and ready to ship.

USCIS also welcomes your insights on how we can better reduce barriers to naturalization for the populations you serve – including your review of our available resources and the design and structure of our Citizenship Resource Center.

Finally, don't miss new resources or free citizenship education webinars. Sign up to receive Citizenship Resource Center email updates.
